

The Asian Gaelic Games: October 11th and 12th Penang

The 13th annual Asian Gaelic Games will be held in Penang on October 11th and 12th at the Penang Medical College.

This event will bring together over 500 Irish people from as far afield as Japan and Dubai to compete in the Games which will comprise a Gaelic Football tournament among the more than 25 male and female teams competing from around the region. Other events will be organised around the main tournament and for the fids in what is now the largest amateur sporting event in Asia.

Details of the Games and of special discounts at local hotels can be found on the websites of the Asian County Board and of the local GAA clubs in the region

<http://www.asiancountyboard.com/>

<http://www.asiancountyboard.com/Asian-Gaelic-Games.html>